

ANDREA CAMILLE HULL

ESL TEACHER

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

I'm an ESL teacher passionate about educating students through dynamic lessons. I love using new technologies to engage students in the material and encourage confidence. My students inspire me every day!

LANGUAGES

- English Native Speaker
- Spanish C2
- Italian B2
- Japanese B1
- Russian A1

CONTACT DETAILS:

Mobile: (123) 456-7890
Email: andrea.hull@gmail.com
Website: www.teacherandrea.net
Address: 滋賀県高島市マキノ町海津字中内
2263番 Japan

COMPETENCIES

- Ability to help students improve their knowledge
- Good communication skills
- Skilled in working with the MS Office Suite and online educational portals

CAREER HISTORY

Online ESL Teacher

VIPKID | July 2019-present

- Delivers one-on-one English lessons, aligned with U.S. Common Core State Standards to children ages 4-16
- Assesses prospective students and evaluates performance and development of current students
- Enhance understanding using TPR, props, and computer software such as OBS, Snapchat, and Google Slides
- Provides timely parental feedback

Librarian

Montgomery County Public Library | 2007-2010

- Head of Children's and Teen's section
- 2nd in charge at a busy Washington D.C. suburban branch
- Organized and supervised children's programming, including the popular Summer Reading Program with over 2000 participants.

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND

University of California, Los Angeles

Master of Library & Information Science, 2006

- Double Concentration in Archives and Informatics
- Webmaster for the California Center for the Book
- Webmaster for the California Rare Book School
- Webmaster for the Society of American Archivists Student Chapter, UCLA.

Bryn Mawr College

Bachelor of Arts, 2000

- Majored in Russian Literature
- Also took classes at Swarthmore College and the University of Pennsylvania through a multi-college consortium.
- Participated in Study Abroad Program in Moscow, Russia
- Tutored in After-school Program 1997-1998